- Jack Baty mentioned that he is moving his notes out of Bear and into his wiki. As I'm also trying to get out of Bear, maybe this is something I should consider. The only problem is that many of my Bear notes are really just detritus, or they are not suitable to put on a public site. At the moment, I've just migrated them to both DEVONthink and Notebooks as I try to figure out what to do next. My Bear subscription expires in May, so I've got some time.
